Who We Are: We are parents of children with special and unique needs. We care about our kids and we care about the educators who devote their heart and soul into educating children and youth with special needs.

We Support Parents: We partner with parents to help them process the wide array of emotions and experiences and empower them to move forward in a positive and productive fashion.

We Support Educators: Educators have a special place in our hearts. We support educators through the seminars that we lead and by providing one-on-one coaching.
